30 Minute Private Lessons

with Flexibility in Scheduling

Summer is the perfect time to begin music instruction! It's also the perfect time for current musicians to "double up" on lessons and get ahead! The commitment to summer music lessons is 30 minutes at a time as space is available. Flexibility is the positive in our summer music system of scheduling. Lesson times are dependant upon instructor and studio availability and must be scheduled in advance. You may reserve as many lessons as you want. Visit www.lifesongstudio.com for headshots and bios for all of Lifesong's Music Staff.

Summer 2010
Registration Begins
Monday, March 22

Ludo Baccherini

Lifesong Music Director, Instructor & Professional Musician

Ludo is an original staff member at Lifesong. Originally from Italy Ludo grew up in the south of France where he graduated from the Dante Agostini jazz school of Drumming and the classical conservatory of music and arts where he studied classical music. He started his career as a professional musician at the age of 16. After graduating, Ludo decided to make the big move to Los Angeles, CA in 1988 where he went on to graduate from the Percussion Institute of Technology in Hollywood and studied with Joe Porcaro, Ralph Humphrey and Steve Houghton. Ludo started playing professionally in the Los Angeles area with different recording artists and bands in all styles of music. After 8 years playing, recording and writing music in Los Angeles, Ludo had the opportunity to move to Nashville, TN to continue his career as a session drummer and music composer. In 2002, Ludo moved to Dallas, TX, to work with the most respected musicians in the Dallas/ Fort Worth area where he is the owner of "La Dolce Vita Recording Studios" and the independent record label "Luna Records." Through the years, Ludo has worked nonstop as a drummer on stages and in recording studios all over the world. As a drum teacher, he has taught and conducted drum clinics all over the world for over 20 years. He is also a well respected music composer and producer for his work with various international artists, television shows and the motion picture industry. We are privileged to have Ludo's talent, experience and professionalism at Lifesong as an instructor, musician and leader!

Highlights of Ludo's experiences include playing with ... Bon Jovi, Cher, Billy Falcon, Mitch Malloy, Alannah Myles and Ceora ... just to name a few!

Payment is due upon registration when the lesson time is reserved. No make-ups. No refunds.
